

Goals of the Evergreen Park
Community High School Foundation for Educational Excellence

To promote and support positive interaction between the school, students, alumni, and community

•

To provide students with opportunities they would not otherwise experience.

•

To provide enrichment resources in addition to those funded by the school district.

WHAT IS A FOUNDATION?

It is a privately funded, nonprofit organization which is self-governed by Evergreen Park Community High School alumni and public-spirited citizens. It serves as an independent third party between the alumni, the Evergreen Park community and District 231 to support excellence and innovation at the high school.

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF THE FOUNDATION?

The Foundation shall operate as an Illinois not-for-profit corporation that serves as a vehicle for soliciting, receiving and allocating gifts, grants and bequests of money, property or services to further enhance and enrich the programs, activities and facilities for the benefit of the students of Evergreen Park Community High School District 231.

MISSION STATEMENT

"To creatively generate financial support and to further enrich and enhance the opportunities and educational experiences of Evergreen Park Community High School District 231 students."
